MAY 12, 1896.

DEMAND PROMPTLY REFUSED.

The Trouble Occurs at a Critical Point and Throws Out 120 Hands

The large force of hands engaged it stringing wires for the Richmond Telephone Company went on a strike yesterday morning, causing almost a complete cessation in the operations of the new concern. This action on the part of the men was not a sudden step, as they had been contemplating a move of this character for some time. The provoca tion of the strike was not, as was rumored, that the employees had not received their wages, but because the pay of a certain class was not what they thought it should be.

As a matter of fact, the only men complaining about the wages paid them were the pole-climbers, of whom the company had about fifty, besides those engaged in had about fifty, besides those engaged in stringing the cables. The cable-men are still at work, being employed by the con-tractors to supply the cable. They re-ceive $2 a day, while the other pole-men only get $1.50. These men asked for an increase to $2 a day, which was promptly refused. A proposition to compromise was disregarded, and yesterday morning, after receiving their wages for last week, the men announced that they would not return to work until their pay would not return to work until their pay

HOPES OF ADJUSTMENT.

The information was at once commu-nicated to the general offices of the com-pany, and late last evening the situation remained unchanged, although Captain A. B. Guigon, general counsel for the Richmend Telephone Company, stated to a Dispatch reporter that his company hoped to have everything moving along in good to have everything moving along in goodshape in a day or so. There are no differences between the employees and the company, save that of the pay of the polemen. When these operatives stopped everything else had to stop work also, save a few hands engaged in trimming and putting up poles, about 120 quitting their employment.

A CRITICAL POINT. The point in the work at which the strike occurs is quite a critical one to the telephone people, as it is just where nearly all the poles are up in the business nearly all the poles are up in the business centre of the city, and where the immediate necessity is to get men to string the wires and connect them up so that the exchange can begin business. It is impossible at this time to prophesy how long the trouble will last, but it is claimed by the men that there are no other pulselimbers in this city, and that all those in other cities are paid from $2.50 to $1 per day.

to $3 per day.

The cable force of the Richmond Tele phone Company, continued at their posts of Juty yesterday, there being no differ-ences between them and their employers. These men are allowed $2 per day, but the telephone company claim that these employees should have more wages than the other pole-men, as their work is more difficult and more dangerous.

HOLD A FARMERS' INSTITUTE. A Profitable Meeting Promised at

Ashland June 3d and 4th. Colonel A. S. Buford, member of the State Board of Agriculture from this (the Third) district, and Colonel Thomas Whitehead, Commissioner of Agriculture, have arranged for a Farmers' Institute, held at Ashland June 3d and 4th. It will take place in the college half of Randolph-Macon College, and the beautirandoppi-Macon College, and the beautiful shady campus will be a delight to a crowd on a hot day. There will be two sessions of the institute each day, with lectures by distinguished men and discussions by the farmers, and on each night a mass-meeting and speech—one on "Good Roads" and the other on "Immigration".

The programme has not been perfected, but the following subjects have been pro-vided for: Fruit Raising, Improved Agriand Handling, Dairying, Assistant-Secre rand Handing, Palrying, Assistant-secre-tary of Agriculture C. W Dabney and Professor Aloon, of the United States Dairy Division, Professor Massey, of North Carolina, and others are expected to be present. Colonel Buford, president of the State Board of Agriculture, will welcome the farmers and the public to this entertainment, and the reply will be made by Professor Smithey, of Handolph-Macon College. There will be a band of music and a local choir.

EXCURSION FROM PETERSBURG. Our Neighbors to Be Given Advantage of Low Rates to Richmond.

The Association for the Development of Richmond Trade has just completed ar-Richmond Trade has just completed arrangements for a delightful excursion from Petersburg to this city, to be run on Saturday next, the 16th Instant.

General indications are that a large crowd will come from the Cockade City upon this occasion. That the low rate to be given—50 cents for the round trip—will attract hundreds to Richmond is now indicated by the large crowds from other points of Virginia who have availed themselves of the rates of fare at which the association has made it possible to yisit this city. at which the association has made it possible to visit this city. Mr. Alex. Mayers, secretary of the association, said yesterday that he believed more than one thousand people would come from Petersburg on the excursion. It is proposed to start the excursion about 8 A. M., so that excursionists will have the entire day in the city. During the reunion the Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity will hold its convention here, making their headquarters at Ford's Hotel. The organization has about one thousand members, and will be represented here by about one hundred delegates. The president of the fraternity is Professor Randolph Jones, of Blackstone. THOROUGHLY MODERN Three-Story Brownstone Front

FRANKLIN-STREET RESIDENCE NO. 819, BETWEEN LAUREL AND SHAFER STREETS, SOUTH SIDE

In execution of the provisions of a certain deed, dated January 29, 1806, and duly recorded, I will offer for sale, on the duly recorded, I will offer for sale, on the premises, on THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1896, at 5.30 o'clock P. M., the above-mentioned RESIDENCE, built about two years age by the present owner, and no expense spared to make it complete in all its appointments. The residence occupies a frontage of £ feet, the front being entriely of dressed brownstone, much of which is handsomely carved; bay windows, balcony, etc. The interior is ninshed in hardwood, and the upper floors reached by a massive oak winding stairway. The entire premises are heated by steam from a furnace in the basement, and wired for electric-light, and all fatures for lighting are of the latest and best patterns, and can be used either for gas or electric-lighting. Wire screens for all doors and windows; electric-bells and speaking-tubes connect all portions of the house. All rooms are furnished with hardwood mantels of the very latest design, and handsomely carved, and fireplace fatures to match.

There are eight chambers the sides lineared trunk-rooms, all furnished with closets and stationary stands, etc. Saloon parlors finished in bird-eye maple, mirrors, etc. Immediately in rear of the parlors is an octagon dining-room and adjoining the dining-room is the breakfast-room on one side, and conservatory on the other; pantry, etc., adjoining, in the basement, which is concreted throughout, are numerous bins for fuel, besides wine-room, etc., and nothing but the most modern fixtures have been used. Closets and washstands on every floor. The kitchen is fitted up to correspond with the remainder of the house, and there are ample accommodations for servants.

The conservatory is concreted and heated with steam. The entire house, and there are ample accommodations for servants. THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1885, vants.

The conservatory is concreted and heated with steam. The entire house, with the exception of the servants' apartments, has been frescoed by a first-class with the exception of the servants' apartments, has been frescoed by a first-class artist.

The stable-ample accommodations for five horses and six carriages—is separated from the main lot by an alley 20 feet wide, paved with granite-spalls, and is a two-story brick structure, concreted on main floor, and has all necessary arrangements and conveniences.

It can be truly said of this property that it must be seen to be appreciated, and it is seldom that such a complete residence is offered for male.

The entire property has a front of sifect on the south line of Frankin street, and it is proposed to offer the same either as a whole or the residence with forty-five feet, which will leave ample room on both sides, and make it entirely detached; and, in that event, the thirty-five feet on the east of the residence will be offered separately.

The premises will be open for inspection from Monday, the lith instant, to the day of sale, between the hours of II and 2 o'clock, and ample opportunity given for thorough examination.

TERMS: Announced at sale, and will be liberal.
